WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK . . .

I dream of home while shuttling shade about me, as filmy haze about the moon.
I love the gilded brilliance of high noon,
And live again old memories dim, but real.

Tulans in Colorado Springs.

Among those from this city who are enjoying the balmy mountain climate offered at Colorado Springs and who are helping to swell the great number of vacationists are Mrs. Howard Harrison, Mrs. J. E. Schmitz, Mr. H. H. Huston, Mr. W. H. Graham, Mr. E. R. Tracy, Mr. W. Baker, Mr. C. G. Armstrong, Mr. R. F. Hubbard and Mr. J. S. Terry. Also, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Page of Tulsa were mentioned as Tulans who have arrived in the Pikes Peak region lately.

Red Cross Information

The local Red Cross has found there are many who wish to contribute to the funds for the American Red Cross. The officers of the organization are Miss Hallie Gipps, one of these officers announces that in the future Mr. T. L. Long will be there at the noon hour to meet the returned soldiers and give them answers to their queries, legal or otherwise, and to attend to matters in general. Mrs. Gipps also says there are many calls for victory buttons being made and there is a good supply on hand to furnish any soldier with one who comes to her.

Official Sponsorial Staff.

Gen. K. M. Van Zandt, of Fort Worth, Texas, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans, has announced his official sponsorial staff for the reunion which will be held in Atlanta, Ga., the dates being October 7-10. Miss Elizabeth Bennett Young of Louisville, Ky., will be sponsor. Miss Young is the daughter of the late Gen. Bennett Young, who for several years was commander-in-chief of the veterans and who was in Tulsa last year and proved one of the most prominent and beloved figures at the reunion. General Young has since died and it is fitting that his daughter should be chosen this honor. The rest of the staff will be Miss Annie Bryan of Memphis, Tenn., and Miss Amanda Day of Chicago; Ark., maid of honor; Miss Charlotte H. Hyde of Chattanooga; Mrs. John Marion, and Mrs. Adolph Bouquet of New Orleans, Chapman.

Mrs. Esther Bupp has returned from Fort Worth, where she has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bupp.

Miss Evelyn Winters of Muskogee arrived yesterday to spend the weeks with Miss Marie Drake.

Friends will regret to know that Mr. and Mrs. Homer Preston and their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Preston will soon make their permanent home in Johnson, N. Y. The parents are there now and Mr. and Mrs. Preston, Jr., will change their residence this coming week to the home of Mrs. Preston's agents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Thurman, 1223 South Cheyenne avenue, where they will be for several weeks before making their permanent return.

Mrs. W. A. Campbell of 1127 South Cheyenne avenue returned yesterday from a visit paid to her parents and other relatives in Ohio.

Steiner-Johnson.

Mr. Robert W. Steiner of Tulsa, wishes to announce the marriage of his nephew, Mr. Arthur Allen Steiner to Miss Norma Elizabeth Johnston of Indianapolis, Ind., which took place Wednesday evening, August 19, at 8 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. Charles E. Newcomb officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Steiner will reside in Tulsa this summer.

Mrs. Harry W. Mandeville and daughter, Miss Harriett Mandeville, will leave today for Colorado Springs where they will spend several months. Miss Mandeville is convalescing from a recent throat operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Baker of Sapulpa will spend the week-end in Kansas City. Mrs. Baker is much improved from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Heggen returned several days ago from a delightful summer spent around the northern lakes. After a visit in Ohio they went to Lake Mackinac, later enroute to the Great Lakes and up to the Lawrence river to Schenectady island where they remained until their return. Life was made enjoyable with fine fishing, expeditions and time spent in the open. During their sojourn in Ohio Mr. Heggen was given a banquet at Springfield lake by the Rotary club and was asked to deliver an address on how Tulsa did her water bonds and conserving the water work in this city. Dayton, Ohio, at that time, was interested in the water bond question.

ONE SAPULPA BOY HONORS HIS HOME WITH D. S. C.

A recently returned Sapulpa attorney was sitting in the office of Mrs. Maeil Bupp, Sapulpa employ business agent, chattering about experiences at home and over there when the conversation had turned to rewards and the D. S. C. Not a single Sapulpa boy had returned with a distinguished service cross, he was observed.

"Would you care to see one?" the boy asked, off-hand and reaching into his pocket brought out a box from which fell not only the distinguished service cross, but the croix de guerre—both of which had been given him because he was a "good son."

The man was Bert Shadrack and these are his farm out from Sapulpa. He was serving on a ship in Mexico and the service he did for Uncle Sam was performing some dangerous scouting and making it possible for his company to get in some deadly work on the Germans. He himself brought back five prisoners on that particular scouting trip.

The D. S. C. was presented to Shadrack by General Allen, who after the honor was bestowed asked if it would do anything to serve him. It was the general's opinion, however, just after the signing of the armistice, and Shadrack one request of the general was that he cable his mother that he was all right. The message was received by the soldier's mother just four days later on the 28th of the same month, much to her surprise and relief.

Read about a guy the other day who says, "I'll go round without any clothes on. I'll eat 'Required Food' and forget all about him."

Read about a guy the following day who says that his suit will soon cost 100 bucks and shoes 20 bucks a couple, and now can't help wondering whether the second guy and the people he represents aren't getting paid by the first guy to boost his game.—M. H. Borowin.

DANIEL A DEFENDANT IN $5,000 LAW SUIT

Tenant Claims Damages on Grounds That Los Angeles Millionaire Contested to Annual Lease Unfairly

Denying the allegations made in a petition filed in district court by R. T. Daniel, owner of the Daniel building, that a lease on the room at 162 East Third street contained restrictions as to the class of goods which might be sold, Peter Pappas, proprietor of a confectionery store filed his answer in that court Friday, alleging that Daniel entered into a conspiracy with J. P. Stetson, manager of the Mecca cafe at 182 East Third street, to force Daniel to consider payment of an additional $200 in rent for the Mecca location agreed with Melton that Pappas should be disposed of his lease.

Pappas, according to the petition, leased the store room from Daniel last spring, and in connection with his sale of candy, other confections and cold drinks, began offering light lunch service. The defendant in his answer claims that Melton, manager of the Mecca cafe, had a secret agreement that for the payment of $500 a month rent for the room occupied by the Mecca cafe Daniel should go into court and seek an injunction against Pappas, restraining the latter from selling light lunch in any form. Pappas agains said when a temporary order was made in district court on August 5, defendant under his contract he was forbidden to sell "such articles and food stuffs of a like nature and such as he have judgment for $5,000 for loss of business since the restraining order went into effect, and for loss of equipment purchased by the defendant for the purpose of preparing lunch material."

on not guilty at their arraignment before Justice H. J. Gray Friday afternoon, and were committed to jail under bonds of $1,000 for preliminary hearing September 2.

The defendants are accused of stealing a car from C. E. Mathes, living five miles southeast of Tulsa. The men were captured in Sapulpa Thursday and turned over to Tulsa county officers for prosecution.
